

US Masters
Augusta National Golf Club
Monday April 4 – Monday April 11

You are cordially invited to join Mark Allen and David Wren at the 2011 Masters, one of the few events in life that will exceed your highest expectations! Our contacts in the world of golf are second to none, enabling us to gain the reputation as THE Masters Experts. The Masters is our Flagship event, but we also organize outings and retreats at some the world's finest golf clubs. What sets ChasingBirdies apart is our capacity and willingness to discern what you or your group requires and our meticulous execution of every detail to customize the week. Our goal is to make this event the single greatest golfing experience of your life.

Chasing Birdies is Australia's Leading US Masters tour. Other travel companies may have access to tickets to the event but we believe the occasion is best experienced with a host. David Wren and Mark Allen have hosted a number of tours and their insight and access to events around the tournament is a priceless addition to your trip.

Our tours offer flexibility. Whilst we are a group we will help you with any alternative plans you might like to make. We treat every customer as an individual and will cater for your needs. Our competitors claim to offer hosted tours, too often we see clients waiting around completely lost looking for their group or been herded onto buses with people they have never met before. Mark and David spend the whole week with the group and are at your call 24/7. Alternatively we can organise a Private House option for groups of 4 or more. Our Luxury houses are in the Augusta area. ChasingBirdies can organise all aspects of your week including private chef, 24 hour transport and Rounds of golf at any of the local golf courses. Please call David Wren to discuss options available. Places are limited to 40

Join Mark and David for the weekend prior to our Masters experience. 2007 we headed up to New York and played Bethpage. 2008 was a game at Torrey Pines home of the Buick Classic and 2008 US Open. 2009 included both Courses at TPC Sawgrass including the Stadium course, home of the Tournament players championship. 2010 was 4 days in Las Vegas including rounds of golf at TPC Vegas and Royal links. Details for this part of the trip will be confirmed at a later date. Register your interest with David Wren

Mark Allen

Is well known to Victorian golfers as host of popular SEN radio show, Chasing Birdies. He turned pro in 1990 and played tournament golf around the world for 15 years. He had success in the US, Europe and Asia. He rates his 5th Place in the 1993 Australian Masters at Huntingdale as one of his more memorable Australian Tour performances.

He has played in a British Open in 1999 and hosted Channel 9's television coverage of the US Masters in 2002. He is well known by golfers on all the world tours and will provide a great resource on how best to view the tournament.

His reputation is fast growing as Australia's premier golf host and hosted the 2007 US Open for Network 10.

He believes every golfer should make the pilgrimage to Augusta National at least once in their life.

David Wren

Has been an Australian PGA Full Member for 25 years.

He travels extensively both as a Professional Golfer and personally. He believes travel is a gift to our generation and considers his trip to Augusta for the Masters as an annual highlight.

He has hosted trips to China, India and Augusta National for the past 5 years and is still amazed by the beauty and excitement of Masters week.

His personal passion for travel is visiting third world countries.

He has summited 3 mountains in the Himalayas over 20,000 feet and has completed bike crossings of Vietnam, Tibet, Nepal and South America.

Conditions

The tour has been based on a minimum of 16 travelers and we reserve the right not to proceed if we do not achieve this minimum. The tour is based on arrangements which do not allow refunds for any services which are not utilized once the tour has commenced. Advertised price is based on an exchange rate of 0.90 USD. Any changes to rate may affect final price. The tour has been priced based on 2010 rates for accommodation, green fees & transport. An allowance has been included to cover price increases between 2010 and 2011. We reserve the right to alter prices should any component increase by more than 10% between 2010 and 2011. Any such change will be fully supported by documentation. We have been working together with all the courses and do not envisage any problems. Actual dates of play may vary at each course. In the unlikely event golf cannot be arranged at a specific course, golf will be arranged at a comparable alternative and/or a refund for that round will be offered. Adequate travel insurance is strongly recommended and we suggest you investigate this immediately you book the tour. We rarely recover fees paid to hotels or golf courses and insurance should be obtained to cover any possible cancellation.

Cost Per Person

- $8340 USD Twin Share

Daily Schedule 2011

Monday 4 April: Arrive Columbia Metro Airport - South Carolina. You will be transferred to the hotel. Just let us know your arrival time. If you wish to catch the same flights as us from Australia, we will give you the details.

Tuesday 5 April: Play golf or a rest day after flying from Australia. This is a great opportunity to get out on the practice tee and hone your swing with Mark and David. An informal day driven by whatever you feel like doing. At 7.30 pm we host our "Welcome Cocktail Party" at West Lake Country Club. Our guest speakers last year were Doug Sanders and Tony Jacklin who gave us a great insight into the History of Professional golf and their personal experiences of playing the Masters.

Wednesday 6 April: Attend Par 3 tournament and final practice session Wednesday for some is the highlight of the week. It is the only day you are allowed to take any photos as past winners and the game's legends tackle the famous Par 3 course. The Par 3 course is the prettiest patch of golf turf in the world and it will be a memory you will not forget when reflecting on your week at Augusta.

Thursday 7 April: Golf at Woodside Plantation. We have an afternoon tee time booked at the Reserve Club at the Woodside Plantation. After golf we head into the bar to watch the telecast of Round 1 of the Masters. On the completion of the telecast we have dinner reservations in the dining room. It's a chance to sample the country's leading wines and maybe a prime cut US Steak. The Chef is considered the areas finest.

Friday 8 April: Golf at Palmetto Golf Club Golf – 9 am hit off. Palmetto is an Alistair McKenzie designed golf course McKenzie designed Royal Melbourne so his work is known to all of us. Palmetto is the oldest course in the area and you will love its old world charm. It feels like you are playing Augusta National, with its pine trees and undulating fairways. Jack Nicklaus has chosen 3 holes on this course in his top 18 holes in the United States. It is in the coveted list of The 100 Most Prestigious Private Clubs in America.

Saturday 9 April: Attend Masters Day 3 The cut has been decided and the remainder of the field is chasing the green jacket. Our recommendation is to arrive early and find somewhere on Amen Corner close to a scoreboard and watch the drama unfold. We will be able to give some invaluable insight on how to best view the tournament to ensure you know all the vantage points.

Sunday 10 April: Attend Masters Day 4. The reason we have traveled half way around the globe has arrived. We can guarantee you will not be disappointed and you will have memories you will never forget. The excitement builds during the day to the point when the players tackle the most famous stretch of the holes in golf "Amen Corner". It always produces something special. Let's hope an Australian can finally wear the Green Jacket and hold up the most coveted trophy in golf. If it is an Aussie we will find out where the celebrations are and head down there.

Monday April 11: Please advise David Wren of your departure times from Columbia Metro. We allow plenty of time to get you on your flight. Please be checked out of your room 2 ½ hours prior to your flight departure time.
